

Experience the Sesquicentennial with Lem Sheppard

A Civil War Commemorative Performance

Lem Shepard will share his wonderful musical talents and history with your students. Lem will trace the history of African-American music from both the South and the North.

This is a very timely, educational, entertaining and historical program designed for this sesquicentennial year.

"Our students were completely dazzled by Mr. Sheppard's program. He is a wonderfully talented individual who incorporates social studies, music, and language arts into his very educational program."
– Clay City Elementary School, Clay City, IN

"Lem was amazing with the kids – keeping their attention every moment. They loved the different rhythms and stories. So many children and teachers told me they loved him. Staff were amazed with the quality of his showmanship."
– Renner Elementary School, Kansas City, MO

"Lem brings music, culture, history and human relationships together in his performance. What a wonderful voice Lem has!"
– Leary Elementary school, Warminster, PA

"The history that Mr. Sheppard provides is a concrete tie to today's world through his music."
– Valley Oak Academy, Citrus Heights, CA

"Lem was really great with the students! His soft spoken and warm manner really kept them all engaged!"
– Rothschild Elementary,
Rothschild, WI
